DEVRY UNIVERSITY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, June 30, 2021 marks the 90th anniversary of DeVry University; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Herman DeVry, who invented the portable projector that became standard in schools nationwide and Dr. Lee DeForest, who invented the vacuum tube, opened DeVry Training School in 1931, which would become DeVry University in 2002; and

WHEREAS, DeVry University brings a pioneer's perspective to education, embracing new opportunities to explore and encouraging students to dig deeper into understanding industry-relevant roles of technology so they can be better equipped to find solutions that can make a difference; and

WHEREAS, DeVry University strives to close society's opportunity gap by preparing learners to thrive in careers shaped by continuous technological change; and

WHEREAS, with innovative programs, relevant partnerships and exceptional care, DeVry University empowers students to meaningfully improve their lives, communities and workplaces; and

WHEREAS, DeVry University is committed to providing proactive academic and student support to promote student satisfaction and success; and

WHEREAS, DeVry University is committed to accountability and transparency, publicly disclosing information that is key to understanding our values and how we operate; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County do hereby proclaim June 30, 2021 as DeVry University Day.
